The History of KITASATO

1853
- Birth of Shibasaburo

Shibasaburo Kitasato

- Commodore Matthew C. Perry visits Japan (1853)
- The Crimean War breaks out

- Charles Darwin publishes "On the Origin of Species"

- Alfred Nobel invents dynamite

- The Japanese Red Cross Society is established

- The first medicine dispute in Japan "Beriberi"

- Robert Koch discovers tubercle bacillus and cholera germ (1884)
- Louis Pasteur invents a rabies vaccine

- Shibasaburo graduates from Tokyo Medical School and starts working for the Ministry of Home Affairs
- Shibasaburo enters Kumamoto Medical School
- Shibasaburo enters Tokyo Medical School
- Shibasaburo compiles Idion

- Beriberi debate
- Shibasaburo's beriberi bacillus debate
- Shibasaburo went to Germany and studied under Dr. Robert Koch, the discoverer of the tubercle bacillus